Written Statement

SHAL is a fusion of the not-for-profit world with a business. It is important that those involved represent a range of skills and experience. An application for membership is the first step to a position on the Board. Consequently it is important that you outline in this statement your skills and experiences. We are particularly interested to know if you have experience working in the community whether this is, for example, running support services for the homeless, or treasurer of the village amateur dramatic society.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

In providing access to housing, services and work no-one will receive less favourable treatment than another on the grounds of race, colour national or ethnic origin, nationality, religion, belief, gender, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, disability or age and we expect everyone who works with SHAL to support this policy. SHAL is committed to eliminating discrimination, promoting equality and promoting good relations on these grounds.

To help SHAL monitor its policy, it would help if you would complete the following section:-
