Do you have time on your hands?

Are you bored with the same routine?

Would you enjoy a challenge?

Why not become a tenant representative?

The Board direct the work of SHAL Housing Limited.

You could help the Board make SHAL more responsive and more effective. At the same time you could learn much for yourself helping to guide the organisation.

What is involved?

You are required to attend the meetings of the Board which take place every 2 months

Attend the AGM and our Annual Seminar

Attend the Tenants Consultative Committee meetings (usually 3 - 4 in a year)

The Tenants Consultative Committee play a large part in providing ideas and editing the Newsletter which is sent out to tenants 3 times a year as well as consultation regarding Better Value for tenants.

You also have the opportunity to join other sub-committees.

To join you have to complete an application (which is considered by the Board) for membership and pay £1.00. You may be invited to stand straight away or you may have to stand for election!

What are the benefits?

- Reasonable travel expenses paid by SHAL
- Car parking fees paid by SHAL
- Child minding can be paid for by SHAL
- A chance to have your say in what goes on
- A chance to have your own ideas and news included in the Newsletter and to help edit its contents
- Helping direct the future of a multi-million pound company can be interesting and makes an excellent contribution to a CV!
